Hockey Stingers Dump Dartmouth

The Concordia Stingers closed out the first half of the 1981-82 hockey season last Saturday evening with a 5-3 victory over Dartmouth University at Hanover, New Hampshire. The win gives the Stingers a 13-7-2 mark leading into the Christmas break.

Gilles Hébert led the Concordia attack with 2 goals while Brian Taylor, Roman Dziatkowiec and Mike Elwood scored singles. Tom Ierna with 2 and John Sedgwick replied for the Big Green who trailed 1-0 after the first period and 2-1 after 40 minutes.

Micron Tournament

The Stingers return to action January 6, 1982 with a game at Trois-Rivières against the league leading U.Q.T.R. Patriotes. Concordia trails the Pats by one point but holds a game in hand. On January 8 & 9, 1982 Concordia will host the Micron Tournament. On Friday, the 8th at 5:00 p.m. national champions Moncton will play Guelph while at 8:00 p.m. the Stingers will face Queen's. The following afternoon the Consolation game is set for 1:00 p.m. with the Championship to follow at 4:00 p.m.
